The Chiquola Manufacturing Company was founded in 1902. Through constant adoption of new ideas, new methods and modern machinery it has continued to grow and play an important part in the industrial progress of South Carolina.

During this long period of successful operation under the same management, Chiquola has produced more than ONE BILLION YARDS of cotton fabrics; it has purchased more than SIXTY MILLION DOLLARS worth of cotton from the farmers of the South; it has paid MILLIONS of dollars in taxes to the City, County, State, and Federal Governments; it has donated thousands of dollars to schools, churches, orphanages, and charitable organizations; and last but not least, it has paid more than THIRTY-TWO MILLION dollars in wages to the hundreds of fine people who have been on its payroll over the years.

Former CLEMSON MEN occupy important positions in our management and we are fully cognizant of the important part this outstanding institution is playing in the development of the South through the education of our leaders of tomorrow.

When autumn leaves are falling and the strains of "Tiger Rag" resound from the hills of the Blue Ridge, we lend our voice to the plaudits of the multitude with that old familiar refrain, "GO - TIGERS - GO."

...THE 195-LB. COLUMBIA, S.C., SLASHER LED THE CONFERENCE IN RUSHING A YEAR AGO?

Wells Ticketed for Stardom . . .

Coach Frank Howard told his freshman halfbacks the day they reported to practice, "Now boys, if you want to see how to play your position correctly, come out and I'll show you this boy who knows everything there is to know about playing halfback."

The head man of the Tigers was talking about Joel Wells, his dynamic senior halfback who is expected to make a number of All-American teams this fall.

Wells came to Clemson from Dreher High in Columbia in 1953 determined to make good as a college football player. He enjoyed a good year as a freshman and during his sophomore days he led the Tigers in ground gaining with 352 yards on 74 carries for a 4.8 average.

His junior year saw him blossom into stardom and set three conference records. He carried the ball 135 times for 782 yards (a record) for a 5.8 average. His 78.2 yards average per game and the 175 yards he gained against Furman were also conference high marks.

Wells is the cover boy on this year's Official NCAA Football Guide and has been prominently mentioned in all leading national magazines as a player to be reckoned with, both on defense and offense.

Here you will find all of the services of a great metropolitan hotel yet you will be far away from the noise of a large city. And you'll enjoy the beautifully landscaped grounds and the flower beds. The splendid accommodations and the excellent cuisine offered at the Clemson House are combined with warm friendly hospitality and fine service. The Clemson House is a gem among fine hotels, and the rates are almost unbelievably low. All rooms are air conditioned. Four dining rooms and the Tiger Lounge and Coffee Shop. 1956 FOOTBALL RULES CHANGES

By Charles W. Tucker, Jr.

We are happy to report that if you understood the football rules last year you will have no difficulty with them this year.

The Rules Committee of the N.C.A.A. is continuing its policy of holding changes to a minimum and constantly working toward standardization of the Rules for the best interests of all concerned.

There are a number of refinements and editorial changes for the sake of clarification, but very few changes of major significance. One of the principal changes this year is to reinstate the rule covering eligible pass receivers to its former status. Last year, if a center, guard or tackle was in an end position, he was not eligible to receive a forward pass when a teammate was behind him or outside of him. This year the rule says, "Any player in an end position on the line of scrimmage may receive a forward pass", so we are right back where we started.

Other changes are as follows:

GAME CLOCK STARTS ON KICK-OFF WHEN BALL IS LEGALLY TOUCHED: In the past the game clock has always started when the kicker's foot made contact with the ball. Now the game clock will not start until the ball has been legally touched.

In the past it would have been possible for the kicking team in the closing seconds of the game with a small lead to protect to run the game clock out by kicking the ball out of bounds or by illegally recovering it before the defensive team had a chance to get possession of the ball. This change will eliminate the possibility of the kicking team taking advantage of such a situation in the future.

CLIPPING AND BLOCKING REDEFINED: Clipping was formerly defined as, "blocking an opponent, other than the runner, from behind." This year clipping is defined as, "running or diving into the back, or throwing the body across the back of the leg or legs of an opponent not carrying the ball."

Blocking was formerly defined as, "obstructing a player with the body." This year blocking is defined as, "obstructing an opponent by contacting him with any part of the blocker's body."

ASSISTING RUNNER IN GAINING FORWARD PROGRESS REDEFINED. For many years, there has been a 15 yard penalty for a teammate helping the ball carrier by pulling, pushing, or lifting him from the ground. This rule has been further strengthened this year by the addition of the phrase, "or charging into the Runner to assist him in gaining forward progress."

TIME OUT TO REPLACE JERSEYS OR PADS CHARGED TO TEAM UNLESS EQUIPMENT IS DANGEROUS TO OTHER PLAYERS: In the past, if a jersey was torn so that the number was illegible or pads were not held in proper position, the referee could give that team a time-out and charge himself. Under this ruling the tear-away jersey became a very popular item for obtaining free time-outs. No more! This year the referee will not allow a free time-out unless, in his opinion, the equipment has definitely become dangerous to other players.

PROCEDURE FOR GETTING A KICKING TEE ONTO THE FIELD: It has always been a moot question as to whether or not it was "coaching from the sidelines" when a kicking tee was thrown onto the field. The rules make it very clear this year as to what the procedure should be. If the game clock is stopped and a tee is thrown onto the field, this is legal. If the game clock is running and a tee is thrown onto the field this will be considered as "coaching from the sidelines" unless an official is notified that a tee was being requested.

LEGAL USE OF HANDS OR ARMS AFTER A FORWARD PASS HAS BEEN TOUCHED: When a legal forward pass has been thrown, defensive players have the same rights as eligible offensive players to catch the ball, but no player shall deliberately interfere with the other's opportunity to catch the ball. Once the ball has been touched, the complexion of things changes and any eligible receiver who has a reasonable chance to make the catch may use his hands or arms to push an opponent out of the way.

NUMBERING SYSTEM: The Rules Committee has further recommended the following numbering of players for the convenience of spectators, coaches and officials:

Backs	10-49
Centers	50-59
Guards	60-69
Tackles	70-79
Ends	80-89

Such numbering of players makes it much easier to follow the game.

RUBBER COVERED FOOTBALL: For several years the Rules Committee has permitted the use of a rubber covered football provided it was mutually agreed upon by the two contesting teams. This year either team may elect to use a rubber covered ball while on the offense.

Presbyterian-Clemson Rivalry . . .

Tonight marks the 37th meeting between Clemson and Presbyterian College and the 27th of continuous play. And even though the Tigers are favored over the Blue Hose again, the Clinton eleven still looks for that inside chance of upsetting the Men of Calhoun.

Presbyterian has won only three and tied four others in the long and colorful series. The last time the Hose tripped the Tigers was in 1943 when a 13-12 win would not be denied them. Since that time the Tigers have marched to 12 straight wins, piling up 570 points to 33 for P.C. Eight of these last 12 have been shutouts for Clemson, and in the last five, a "3" has been in the Clemson final score . . . 53, 53, 33, 33, 33.

The visitors bring to Memorial Stadium tonight a larger starting team than the Tigers will field. A line averaging 220 pounds will not be pushed around and four backs averaging better than 200 pounds will carry a threat on every play. The Hose, as always, have upset on their mind and with this being the 13th game in the current Tiger win streak could give the superstitious Frank Howard some anxious moments.

Presbyterian-Clemson games have always been clean, hard-fought contests. Last year the Tigers were only penalized 5 yards and the Hose only 30 yards. The fine sportsmanship shown in this series has led Presbyterian Athletic Director Walter A. Johnson to say, "There has always been a close relationship between P. C. and Clemson. Probably nowhere in the country today can you find as close an athletic bond between a large institution and a small one. I think it is a tribute to sportsmanship of the highest order."

Coach Johnson led the Blue Hose against Clemson in the first meeting of the two clubs in 1916. On that team was end standout Lonnie McMillian who later was to step up as head coach at Clinton. Now, Bill Crutchfield brings the latest edition of the Blue Hose into town, an like his predecessors, is looking for that upset that has eluded Presbyterian so many times.

About the Coach . . .

Coach Frank Howard is starting his 17th season as head coach at Clemson and his 26th in "full connection" with the school. During his stay here as head man his teams have won 84 games of 152. Three of his teams have played in post-season bowl games. Only seven times have Clemson teams been under the .500 mark and five of these were during the war.

This will be the fourth season the Tigers have run under the "T" and Split-T formation, Howard having been a straight single wing man until 1953. The first year Clemson won 3 and lost 5. Next it was a 5-5 campaign, and last year the Country Gentlemen had a 7-3 mark. Many are labeling Clemson as the "darkhorse" in the conference, but Howard says he cannot taste orange juice this year unless some of the sophs come through in each of the 10 games.

When Howard isn't coaching football or looking into some high school prospect, he can usually be found on the "roast beef" circuit giving out with some of his oft-quoted humorous sayings. He is one of the few who still has fun at his coaching while at the same time, moulding a good team.

About the College . . .

CLEMSON ESTABLISHED

On November 27, 1889, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of South Carolina drew up an Act of Acceptance of the will of Thomas Green Clemson authorizing the establishment of Clemson as the Agricultural and Mechanical College of this state. Clemson was a distinguished scientist of his day and served as the nation's first superintendent (now secretary) of Agriculture. He married the daughter of John C. Calhoun, the noted Southern statesman

LOCATION AND SIZE

Located on the former plantation of Calhoun and Clemson in the northwestern corner of South Carolina, thirty miles from the foothills of the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains, the college has grown from an institution with 446 students when it opened its doors in 1893 to the present day enrollment of 3,350. The campus embraces over 29,000 acres.

THE PRESIDENT

Dr. Robert Franklin Poole became president of Clemson in 1940, succeeding the late Dr. Enoch Sikes. Born in Laurens County, S. C., December 2, 1893, Dr. Poole was graduated from Clemson in 1916. He received his Ph.D. degree from Rutgers in 1921. He spent 17 months in France and Germany with the Aerial Photography Service during World War I. He was assistant plant pathologist at the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station from 1920 through 1926. Dr. Poole went to North Carolina State College in 1926 and remained there until he accepted the Clemson presidency in 1940. He is a past president of the Association of Land-Grant Colleges and Universities, the Association of Southern Agricultural Workers and the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

PHYSICAL PLANT

Clemson's physical property has grown from a value of $250,000 in 1893 to $25,000,000 today. There has been a great expansion since World War II. Construction added in this time includes a new agricultural engineering building, chemistry building, boiler plant, apartment hotel and faculty homes, ceramics building, laundry, a new $4 million dormitory, and a $4 million agricultural center.

EDUCATIONAL DIVISIONS

The College's main divisions include the Schools of Agriculture, Engineering, Arts and Sciences, Education, and Textiles. Graduate work can be obtained in most of the schools. Thirty-two curriculums are offered in the five schools.

Cubs Land Top Prospects; Five-Game Schedule is Planned

Clemson coaches are highly pleased with the fine group of freshmen who reported for football practice this season, and every indication points to a good season, provided the yearlings follow the directions of Head Coach Covington "Goat" McMillan and assistants Don Wade and B. C. Inabinet.

In watching the freshman scrimmage, varsity coaches are in agreement that this group, coupled with the boys who are now sophomores on the varsity, could give a fine team in '57.

The Cubs only play one time before the home folks but will take their wares on the road four times. First they face the always-powerful Georgia Tech eleven in Atlanta Sept. 28.

Next is the N. C. State 'Pack in Raleigh Oct. 5. Those planning to see the varsity game in Raleigh the next day will have an opportunity of seeing the Cubs in action here. This game is followed on Oct. 24 with the traditional game with the Carolina Biddies on the night before "Big Thursday."

Ten days elapse before the next test in Athens before the Bullpups of the University of Georgia Nov. 2 and the close-out affair is in Memorial Stadium here Nov. 16 against Wake Forest. All games at home and away will begin at 8 p.m.

Four former All-American prep stars grace the Cub squad this year and nearly everyone on the team was accorded some type of honor during his high school days.

Leading the list of highly sought-after stars are Harvey White of Greenwood, probably the outstanding player in the state last year; Herby Burnette of Bristol, Va., a scatback halfback; Sonny Quesenberry of Radford, Va., another big, bullish halfback; and Lou Cordileone, 245-pound bruising guard of Jersey City, N. J.

These four are expected to have plenty of help from others such stars as Roland Rosier at center, Dave Martin at guard, Fleming Harris at guard, Morris Keller and Tex Aydlette at tackle, Emil Zager, Wencil Smithco, Jack Webb and Dave Butler at ends, Johnnie Mac Goff, and Chuck Miskinis at quarterback, Frank Marino, George Usry, Rabbit Chatlin and Strom Doolittle at halfback and Doug Cline, Roger Hough and Bill Mathis at fullbacks.

The P. C. Story . . .

Presbyterian College, in celebration of its 75th anniversary last fall, launched a Diamond Jubilee Development Program aimed at raising $750,000 in 1956 and $2,000,000 over a longer period of time.

Today, this program is under full steam with more than $600,000 subscribed in the first half of the 1956 campaign. All indications point to a successful completion exceeding the initial goal within the next few months.

The result will mean a new chapel-auditorium, student center and increased endowment—all prime objectives in Presbyterian College's program to expand its capacity for service.

Dr. Marshall W. Brown, president of PC since 1945, points out that Presbyterians of the controlling Synods of South Carolina and Georgia have thrown their support wholeheartedly behind this development project.

In the 11 regions where campaigns have been conducted thus far, a total of $604,716.33 has been subscribed by 3,925 contributors. That's an average of $154 per subscription.

Six more regions are now in the midst of fund-raising drives for Presbyterian College. They are: Columbia, Rock Hill, Sumter and Kingstree in South Carolina; and Athens and Macon in Georgia. Still another six regions are scheduled to conduct their campaigns during the final two months of this year.

All of this activity—following immediately upon completion of new Bailey Hall dormitory last fall—propels the institution to a flying start in its long range development plans. Leaders have expressed the confident belief that the next few years will complete for Presbyterian College its decade of greatest accomplishment.

The National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame

The National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, composed largely of former football players, was organized in 1947 to honor those men, who as players and coaches, have made amateur football the game of American youth.

Since then, its aims have been expanded to include offering those directly responsible for the conduct and administration of the game, assistance to help preserve intercollegiate football in its rightful position as a beneficial and necessary function of our educational system.

The Foundation feels strongly that there is a demand that these aims continue to be realized. It is engaged in a program designed to answer that demand and looks to those who share its determination for support.

This support comes largely from its members, organized in chapters stretching from coast-to-coast, whose dues range from five dollars annually. Through these chapters, the Foundation unites, in one group, the varied forces responsible for the conduct of the game with the man who has played it and made it what it is today. For him, the ex-football player, the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame is particularly an opportunity for expression, perhaps for the first time in a national way.

Chapters are organized with the help of the national organization and elect their own officers. In addition to their activities locally, they elect state officers, who in turn, attend the Foundation's annual Football Congress, during which players and coaches are elected to the Hall of Fame. Nominations are submitted by Foundation members. There is selective voting by the press, and final selections by a national Honors Court.

To date, out of the thousands who have participated in the game, 99 players and 45 coaches, representing 52 colleges and universities, have been so elected. In many cases, they have been honored at Hall of Fame game ceremonies conducted on the very fields of their success in view of thousands of spectators. This Fall, approximately 11 such games have already been scheduled to honor recent nominees.

Guiding all its activities is the continuing belief of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, that amateur football is one of the principle breeding grounds of that typically American phenomenon known as "the winning spirit." This spirit finds its truest expression in the amateur athlete whose greatest reward and chief goal is the development of his own excellence. Football properly played and properly administered, sets this standard.

The Foundation believes, and critics of the game have tacitly agreed, that there is something wrong with the way in which it is conducted off the field if educators allow their institutions to bid for students and if playing "for the love of the game" is replaced by "What's in it for me?".

These trends toward professionalism in amateur sport have been the motivating factors behind the recent actions by various governing bodies within the game itself to bring football back into proper perspective and, as such, have had the Foundation's unqualified support.

In this connection, the Foundation's efforts have been directed toward mobilizing the constructive forces in the game to create a greater national awareness of the basic and irreplaceable values which the playing of football contributes toward the best education of American youth.

The Foundation also endorses without reservation the increasingly high standards being set in the classroom to answer the country's demand for better trained citizens. It believes just as strongly, however, that educators must support the same standard of excellence on the playing field.

In other words, the Foundation feels that football, properly played and properly administered, must be emphasized as an essential adjunct to the values obtained through a formal education. Its work has, and will continue to be directed toward this end.

Those wishing to help further these aims by joining the Foundation may do so by contacting The Executive Secretary, National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, New Brunswick, New Jersey.

Basketball in 1956-57 . . .

Clemson enters the 1956-57 basketball season with nearly the same team which won 9 and lost 17 last year and led the conference in scoring with 86 points per game.

The new look for the Tigers this year will be from the bench where Press Maravich takes over for Banks McFadden, 10 years the Clemson cage coach, but who will stick to football altogether from now on.

Maravich came to Clemson from Aliquippa, Pa., high school after two successful seasons. Previous to that he had turned out winning teams at Davis-Elkins, West Virginia, West Virginia Wesleyan and several service teams.

Bill Yarborough, Vince Yockel, Tom Comeron, Gene Seay and Ed Brinkley—all starters last year—will be back for more tough ACC round ball. (Yarborough has been declared eligible for the first 13 games).

Dick Yeary, who showed promise of becoming the squad's playmaker, and Eddie Moncrief, another capable reserve of '55-'56, are both due back. Add to these seven Fred DeBerry, Nick Carter, Robert Lindsay, Craig Hoffman and Lawrence Dunn from the freshman squad of last year, and Maravich will probably mould a team capable of leaving the ACC cellar.
